SPECIAL NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC.

OITT INSPECTOR'S DEPARTMENT, 1 New York, June 17, 1863.

By resolutions of the Common Council of the city of New York, approved by his Honor the Mayor, the City Inspector has resumed the duties of street cleaning. All the obstacles which have heretofore embarrassed the operations of this department in that respect have now been removed, and the City Inspector has entered upon the prosecution of the work, including the removal of ashes and garbage, with the whole force at his disposal.

The residents of this city can materially aid and assist him in placing the streets in a thoroughly cleanly and healthy condition, and to that end he most earnestly calls their attention to the necessity of putting a stop it the following daily violations of the laws and ordinances, viz.—

First—The librowing of ashes, garbage and fifth upon the streets.

First.—The throwing of sahes, garbage and filth upon the streets.

Second—The habit of merchanta, &c., in permitting straw, shavings and other substances used in packing, to be cast upon the streets or placed upon the adewals, from whence it is soon scattered over the street.

Third—The daily sweepings from stores and shops being thrown into the streets and gutters, instead of helps placed thrown into the streets and gutters instead of helps placed and cellars, and cubbleh and eld material from the repairing of buildings.

Fifth—The throwing into the streets and gutters notious impure and offensive liquids and substances.

The commission of any of the above acts is not only a direct violation of the laws and ordinances, subjecting the offender to arrest, time and imprisonment, but greatly fine the work difficult of successful operation, while largely increasing the exposure.

Every egrot will be made by the City Inspector to have the streets kept in a healthy and cleanly condition, and he armestly and confidently hopes and looks for the coperation and assistance of all classes of citizens in putting an end to the violations above enumerated.

A copy of the several ordinances referred to, will be left and a confidence of the several ordinance of the streets of the several wards daily (Sundays excepted), to collect ashes, garbage, &c., and the City Inspector desires that every neglect or missoonder to the part of the drivers of such earts or Street DAMELE, DELEVAN, City Inspector.
